

Will McLemore, CAI*President of McLemore Auction Company, LLC

A native of Nashville, Mr. McLemore holds a BA from Yale University. He began his career in the auction business in the contemporary art department of a major international auction house based in New York. He went on to work for one of the largest real estate auction firms in the United States and for the largest industrial auctioneer in the world.

In 2006, Mr. McLemore founded McLemore Auction Company, LLC and opened its Nashville headquarters.

Mr. McLemore was elected to the Board of Directors of the National Auctioneers Association in 2015. Before his election, Mr. McLemore served as Chairman of the National Auctioneers Association Education Institute. He is a past President of the Middle Tennessee Auctioneers Group, past Vice President of the Tennessee Auctioneers Association and is a member of the Greater Nashville Association of Realtors, the Tennessee Association of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors.

Mr. McLemore received the Certified Auctioneers' Institute (CAI) designation from the National Auctioneers Association in 2003. Mr. McLemore now teaches at CAI.